Perfect Storm Leadership

Remote 3,5 h workshop for leadership in turbulent situations

Concept

"All companies really need leaders who are able to lead us through this shitstorm – without going away on five leadership conferences first to figure out just how".

Responding to this rather direct comment from a CEO client, we have created Perfect Storm Leadership 2020 – a half day workshop to give crisp tools for leaders to use in this turbulent business reality.

We need tools to bounce forward, not back – as this perfect storm pass on.

1. We need to understand how to lead in complexity so we can make good decisions when experts disagree and outcomes are uncertain.

2. We need to help our teams understand change in order to move faster forward.

3. We need to lead our distributed teams and functions – 100% remotely.

And we need these tools Right Now, not three months from now.

Contents

Delivery is a 3,5 h remote workshop in Zoom - with Lead Trainer Patrick Stahl and one of the Perfect Life producers (taking care of the tech behind the scenes)

- Leadership in Complexity (what is complexity, a sensemaking framework, concrete leadership strategies that actually work in complexity)
- Leading through massive and immediate change (how to understand the human dimensions of Change in people under extreme pressure – and which tools are at your disposal to help your people move forward)
- Distributed Leadership (how do you build psychological safety in a remote setting, and what is the actual playbook for managing a distributed team without becoming a control freak)

During workshops participants will be divided into mixed trios for reflection in breakout sessions in Zoom. In internal company events we can design duos/trios/quartets at your convenience.

WHAT WE DO

- Organisational development through strategic change work
- Cultural change to make Values something people live, not just something people know
- Sustainable High Performance - release all potential without burning people out
- Leadership development and Self Leadership development
- Team development and Teaming

What we are passionate about is...

- Our international approach – we almost exclusively work in international organisations, with multicultural teams
- Our passion for bespoke work – there IS no standard solution
- Our focus on Strengths Based Development – building on strengths, not mulling around in weaknesses
- Our focus on Solution Focus – we will identify the problems, and work the problems – but we will not waste time on problem sightseeing
- Our focus on Self Leadership – if you want to be fast and grow fast you need people to dare make decisions and act on knowledge

And...

PERFECT
LIFE

- We are passionate about true co-design. Before each step we discuss the process with you, and together we will decide what is the best next step
- Our use of blended development - when we cannot meet face to face - we still get the job done through remote tools; flipped classrooms, remote modules/coaching, virtual tool clinics etc
- Success for us is when we see real action. From us, from your leaders, from your employees. Everyone matters - and everyone must contribute. Knowing what to do is not good enough, ACTION is required to achieve traction and success
- Our track record! 22 years of raving fans - we have fun and we create results, so our clients come back the next time they need help.
